FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COLUMBUS, OHIO RESIDENT SENTENCED FOR POSSESSING 13 FALSE IDENTIFICATIONS

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that DANIEL F. TAYLOR, 31, COLUMBUS, OHIO, was sentenced to 12 months and 1 day imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge John Daniel Tinder following his guilty plea to possessing false identification documents. This case was the result of a investigation by the Marion County Sheriff's Department and the United States Secret Service.

On March 6, 2006, TAYLOR was arrested at an Indianapolis warehouse store for presenting a false identification and check to buy a membership. That same day, TAYLOR had just been to a different warehouse store and attempted to get $2,500 worth of merchandise and a membership with a false identification and fake check using a different name. TAYLOR's scheme was not successful at either location. After TAYLOR was arrested, his vehicle was searched and officers located 13 false driver's licenses, all with TAYLOR's picture on it and different names and addresses. The licenses purported to be from Idaho and Utah. The licenses had corresponding false checks and fake business cards. No merchant suffered any actual loss.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Gayle L. Helart, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Tinder also imposed 3 years supervised release following TAYLOR's release from imprisonment.
